DAY 3

PARIS - VERSAILLES

Breakfast, Meet your guide at the lobby of the hotel for a full day excursion. Your day will begin by the visit of the Palace of Versailles, symbol of the supreme power of the French monarchy. Built in 1623 by Louis XIII, the Palace of Versailles became the symbol of the French kingdom, under Louis XIV in particular. The guided visit includes the most beautiful rooms: the Royal Apartments of the King and Queen, and the grand and famous Hall of Mirrors, a unique room in which guests were received and impressed. Free time for lunch in Paris.

Your excursion continues with one hour Seine cruise through the city's historic center, you will discover the most beautiful bridges, its historic monuments, and everyday Parisian life on the river's banks.

DAY 4

PARIS - BRUGES (VENICE OF THE NORTH)

Breakfast, departure from Paris to Brussels. Arrival at Brussels and meeting with our local guide for a short visit of the city. We will head to Ghent, at the confluence of the Scheldt and Lys, has been listed by National Geographic Traveler as the third most authentic city worldwide. We walk along Graslei and Korenlei. From one of the flanking bridges, one can see the postcard panorama of the three towers: the belfry and the steeples of the St. Nicolas church and the St Bavo's cathedral. A stroll over the Korenmarkt, a stop at a.o. the St Nicolas church, the impressive belfry and its cloth hall brings us to the cathedral. After visitation of Ghent, we will continue to the historical town of Bruges Known as the Venice of the North, Bruges is one of the most beautiful cities in Europe. Check in at the NH hotel in Bruges.

BRUGES

Breakfast, Day free at leisure to discover the city.

DAY 6

BRUGES - AMSTERDAM

Breakfast, Road to Amsterdam. Meeting with our local guide and visit of Amsterdam. As well as seeing the major attractions close up, you will delve into some of the "Hidden city" which tourists often miss. You will also hear the history created by some of the extraordinary people who make up the city's past and present! Some of the places you will pass by during the tour: Dam Square, Royal Palace, Amsterdam Canals, Museum District, Anne Frank House, one of the world's very first Stock Exchanges, the Skinny Bridge across the river Amstel and opposite the Carre Theatre, Artis, the oldest zoo of the Netherlands, a windmill on the Amstel. The tour proceeds with a one hour canal cruise, which takes you through Amsterdam's enchanting canals. From the water you'll enjoy a marvelous view of the 17th century merchants' houses and carillon crowned churches. Check in at the Park Hotel Novotel Amsterdam City 4*.

DAY 7

AMSTERDAM - DELFT - THE HAUGE - MADURODAM

during this tour we will visit two important cities of Holland: Delft and The Hague, Delft is a traditional picturesque town. It turned into a leading city when William of Orange - at the head of the Dutch revolt against the Spanish occupation - settled there in the 16th century. The city center retains a large number of monumental buildings, whereas in many streets there are canals of which the borders are connected by typical bridges, altogether making this city a notable tourist destination. Free time in Delft. We will continue to The Hague where the Dutch government resides. During your tour you will learn more about this so called capital and its buildings. Finally we will continue to the smallest city: Madurodam. In this miniature city you will see Holland in one blink of an eye

DAY 8

AMSTERDAM - BEIRUT

Breakfast, check out and private transfer from your hotel to Amsterdam airport for final departure at 19:10 in the very late afternoon.
